

How to allow your students to post to your Class Blog

1. Go to the “Manage” section of your blog and click on

2. In Posting and Commentating choose “Anyone can post, I will moderate”

POSTING AND COMMENTING

Restrict or allow your readers to do certain things

Who should be allowed to post on your site?

Anyone can post, I will moderate

Who should be allowed to comment on your site?

Anyone can comment

Should we show download links for photos, videos and documents?

Do not show download links

☒ Moderate comments

3. Your students then simply email to yourblogname@posterous.com for example creative34@posterous.com As an administrator you are then able to moderate your students posts by choosing to publish them or not.
